What information do we collect about you and why?

We create a client record for you when you use one of our services.

Your name, address, phone number and information about why you used our service is recorded.

Each time you visit us, we add new information to your record.

This information helps us treat and care for you.

How will your information be protected?

We have strict rules that make sure your information is stored securely.

Your information is also protected by law.

Who sees your information?

Your information can only be seen by our staff involved in your care.

We will not use or share your information unless it is needed for legal reasons, or you want us to share it with someone else.

Sometimes, the government department funding your care may also see your information. They may contact you to ask you how satisfied you are with the services you have received.

Your information may be shared without your consent if there is a serious threat to someone's life, health, safety or welfare, or a child's wellbeing is at risk.

Can I see my information?

You have the right to see your information and to ask for it to be changed if needed. Please ask to speak to our Privacy Officer for more information.

What if I am unhappy about the way my information is handled?

You can talk to our Privacy Officer by telephoning 5155 8300.

If you are still unhappy, you can contact the Health Services Commissioner by telephoning 1300 582 113.
